Information for Applicants for the Master Study Programs "Control, Microsystems, Microelectronics (CMM)" and "Communication and Information Technology" (CIT)

Please note that the information contained herein is intended only as a general orientation for applicants. Applications and admission to the Master program is subject solely to the regulations governing admission to the respective degree course. These regulations can be accessed under www.uni-bremen.de/master. For legal reasons, the official regulations governing admissions are only available in German language.

General Information:
Official commencement of studies: April 1st
Language of delivery: English
Deadline for receipt of applications: The closing date for applications is October 15th.
Before submitting your application, please consult the CIT/CMM study program homepage and check the information on your chosen field of study:
http://www.msc-cit-cmm.uni-bremen.de/.

Application procedure:
Applications must be submitted online, prior to the closing date and together with all necessary admission requirements (see below). For online applications for Master's programs at the University of Bremen go to:
https://moin.uni-bremen.de

Once your application has been submitted online, it is not necessary to submit any paper documents to the University of Bremen. You will only be requested to submit paper documents if your application is successful. In this case you will be sent a Confirmation of Enrollment together with a request to submit (either by postal mail or by hand) any further paper documents that may be necessary.

Admission requirements:

1. Evidence of having obtained a prior academic degree (e. g. a Bachelor degree with 180 ECTS or equivalent)
   - For CMM: Electrical Engineering, Automation Engineering, Microelectronics or another degree in an appropriately related field of study.
   - For CIT: Electrical and Electronics Engineering, Electronics and Telecommunication or another degree in an appropriately related field of study.

   In the event that you may not have qualified for a first degree before the closing date for applications, you may still submit your application: In this case, you must provide evidence that you have already obtained a minimum of 140 ECTS (or equivalent).

2. Competence in the English language at a level of C1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. This does not apply to applicants who obtained their university entrance qualification or prior academic degree in the English language.

3. A Letter of Motivation stating why you have chosen this particular program. The letter should contain the following: The specific reference to the program, a clear and convincing depiction of your personal aptitude and goals, especially with regard to the relation between the content of the program and career expectations, and congruence between motivation to study and the program focus.

4. Curriculum vitae in tabular form.

5. A grade not worse than 2.0 (on the scale 1.0 (very good) to 5.00 (insufficient), as determined by the selection committee. This assessment is to take into account the average grade awarded for your previous/current course of studies and the relevant subjects in previous/current course of studies. Each single criterion must be awarded a minimum grade of 2.7 by the selection committee, and there can be no lifting of grades by offsetting with better grades awarded in another criterion. The "relevant subjects" criterion can be topped up by up to 0.5 if you have working experience relevant for your selected study program.

The following documents may be submitted at a later date:
In the event your application is successful, the documents listed in the items 1 to 4 in the section "Admission Requirements" have to be handed in up to two weeks after the official commencement of studies. The precise deadline will be notified in the Confirmation of Admission.

- Authentication and translation of documents: Only official authentications issued by a German public body can be accepted. All translations must be certified by an officially certified translation agency in Germany or, in case there were done outside Germany, by a German embassy or consulate.

- Award of study places: The number of study places available may be restricted from year to year.

Further information in respect of application procedure, language competence, authentication, ECTS, "Semesterbeitrag" (semester "contribution") and more can be accessed under https://www.uni-bremen.de/master/faq

Or also on our CIT/CMM-Website:
www.msc-cit-cmm.uni-bremen.de