

Bremen, 25.04.2024

Job advertisement for a student assistant (SHK)

The DFG Research Training Group 2686 Contradiction Studies is looking for a student assistant (SHK) for up to 40 hours per month for a period of at least twelve months to support the scientific coordination of the Research Training Group.

Responsibilities

- Technical and organizational support in the planning and implementation of workshops, conferences and lectures
- Supporting the coordination with technical and organizational tasks
- Supervision of the Research Training Group's social media accounts
- Editing the website
- Photographic documentation of events incl. preparation of the photos

Requirements

- Very good written and spoken German and English (the Research Training Group is bilingual)
- Independent, self-reliant, team-oriented way of working
- Time flexibility, high reliability
- Degree in humanities, social or cultural sciences
- Confident handling of common office and communication software
- Experience with WordPress and graphics software as well as Zotero or the willingness to familiarize yourself with it

Work locations: Grazer Straße 2 and mobile

Information on the graduate program can be found at contradictionstudies.uni-bremen.de

Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis.

Please send questions and applications (cover letter, CV, certificates) to the scientific coordinator Ehler Voss: ehler.voss@uni-bremen.de